

BIOFUELS... MOVING INDIANA FORWARD

Monday, April 28, 2008
8:00 AM – 4:00 PM Central Time
Avalon Manor

3550 East US Route 30, Merrillville, Indiana 46410

Plan now to attend the Biofuels...Moving Indiana Forward Conference to be held Monday, April 28, 2008. The conference will inform retailers, marketers, businesses, schools, consumers and transportation managers on the advantages of biofuel usage and the importance of lessening America's dependence on foreign oil.

The conference will offer insights from research experts, as well as practical advice from leaders throughout the biofuels industry.

Hear from experts on hot topics in biofuels-

- National and State perspectives on biodiesel and ethanol production
- Indiana's current and potential biofuel feedstocks
- Marketplace experiences with biofuels
- Importance of biofuels fuel quality
- Potential financial opportunities
- Vehicle and Vendor Displays

Registration for conference is $35. Conference registration includes Continental Breakfast and Luncheon.

Don't miss your opportunity to participate in this conference that will identify and determine ways to make your organization a leader in the emerging alternative fuels marketplace.
